

Max Burrell

Email clerks@42br.com

Max joined Chambers in November 2018.

As part of Max's role, he is responsible for managing incoming and outgoing papers, assisting members with court runs, and general administration tasks in Chambers. He also assists with the clerking of the civil and family groups by diarising cases, entering papers onto the system, listings and chasing papers.

In his spare time, he enjoys going to the gym, watching football and socialising with friends.