

Sara Hammond

Call 2009

Telephone 020 7831 0222

Email clerks@42br.com

Introduction

Sara is an established Family Law practitioner, with particular expertise in the fields of Children Act and domestic violence litigation.

Sara has a wealth of trial experience and of applications for private and public Law Children Act orders, injunctions and committal applications as well as a Court of Protection practice.

Having completed a degree in Psychology in 2016, Sara is now undertaking a PhD with the Open University where she is researching the complex issue of how it is professionals and children/young people negotiate the involvement of the subject children in their own public law Children Act proceedings

Sara is married. When time permits, she enjoys sailing, netball, theatre and Zumba.

Qualifications and Appointments

- Law and German (BA Jt. Hons) degree, Keele University
- Psychology (BSc)