Samuel was called to the bar in 2016 and built his expansive practice at Becket Chambers before joining 42BR Barristers in early 2022. He is a popular junior with a busy practice focused on commercial, property, matrimonial finance and private child disputes. He is known for his ability to clearly explain complex legal issues to clients and for his robust approach in court.

He has a busy paperwork practice and is regularly instructed to advise on civil and family matters or to draft pleadings.

He is able to provide advice at all stages of a case, from pre-action through to trial, the assessment of costs and enforcement.

Commercial Law

Samuel is regularly instructed in a range of commercial cases, particularly those that involve complex interim issues or applications for injunctive relief. He is known for his strategic approach and commercially focused advice.

Prior to coming to the bar Samuel worked at Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan where he assisted with a number of complex high value commercial cases.
