Louise joined 42BR Barristers in October 2018 on completion of pupillage in chambers. She has a broad common law practice encompassing employment, social housing and family law.

Louise has been commended for her thorough trial preparation and conscientious support to lay clients at court and in tribunal.

Housing Law

Louise represents and advises clients in a broad range of landlord and tenant actions; this includes claims for possession, rent arrears, trespass and unlawful subletting and disrepair.

She also has extensive experience in applications for injunctions under the Anti-Social Behaviour Crime and Policing Act 2014 and regularly appears for local authorities and housing associations in proceedings relating to breach or committal.

As well as appearing in all stages of proceedings, Louise accepts instructions to draft pleadings and advise generally on housing matters.

She also appears in the Magistrates Court in relation to Environmental Protection Act 1990 prosecutions.
