

Stuart Ritchie

Email clerks@42br.com

Overview

Stuart commenced his clerking career in 1995 and joined 42BR Barristers in 2014 following the merger with 13 KBW.

As Senior Civil Practice Manager Stuart mentors and manages the civil clerking team and has responsibility for business development and practice management across all civil areas within Chambers. The clerking team are recognised in both legal directories:

Chambers and Partners – ‘The clerking service is wonderful: it is prompt and efficient and it offers great value.’ ‘The clerks are always very responsive and they are proactive in their assistance with the court staff.’

Legal 500 – ‘All of the clerks are excellent and offer a top rate service.’ ‘I have been impressed by 42BR Barristers. The clerks are very responsive and professional’

Stuart is a member of the Institute of Barristers’ Clerks and Legal Practice Management Association, and has obtained a Professional Certificate in Marketing which assists his understanding of how best to approach business development.

In his spare time Stuart follows Charlton Athletic home and away. He also enjoys horse racing and test match cricket when the weather allows.