Introduction

Christi joined chambers in 2015 and has a broad practice including tribunal, county court and high court matters. She also sits part time as a Disability Member in the First Tier Tribunal (Social Entitlement Chamber). Before her call to the Bar, Christi worked within Citizens' Advice Bureaux, from which she brings a highly practical, client focused approach to advocacy. Her experience includes:

Commercial

Drafting claims and defences relating to breach of contract. Procedural litigation. Drafting terms and conditions for use on e-commerce websites.

Employment

Employment tribunal representation. Contract drafting in respect of the provision of professional services.

Family Law

Acting in matrimonial finance, and private and public law children's and domestic violence related proceedings including appearing for the Metropolitan Police in relation to cross-disclosure between civil and criminal proceedings.

Insolvency

Court appearances in personal and commercial insolvency matters including urgent instructions.

Personal injury and Clinical Negligence

Small claim and fast track advocacy. Drafting advice on causation, quantum and liability including schedules of loss.

Property Law

Regular court appearances in private and social landlord possession hearings, and experience of trespass, disrepair, public law and Equality Act issues.

Clinical Negligence and Personal Injury

Christi regularly represents clients at trial in respect of road traffic accidents. She has experience of drafting particulars in personal injury cases including the preparation of schedules and counter-schedules in multi-track personal injury litigation. She also undertakes work in relation to infant approvals.

Public Access

Christi is authorised to accept direct access instructions from members of the public.
