Vondez has a broad civil practice, covering four core areas: Business, Property, Negligence and Employment matters. He has a busy paper-based practice and regularly appears before County Courts, the Companies Court, Employment Tribunals and has appeared in the High Court as sole counsel. Vondez is regularly instructed by small and medium enterprises, commercial and residential landlords, local authorities and individuals.

Vondez is known for his detailed knowledge of the law, forensic case preparation and sensible and practical advice to clients. He has been described by a high court judge as an “extremely impressive” advocate who “has a strong future at the Bar”.

Negligence Law

Personal Injury

Vondez is regularly instructed in claims arising out of road traffic accidents, including fast-track personal injury claims. He advises on liability and quantum in a range of personal injury claims, including infant settlement approvals and claims under the Highways Act. He accepts instructions on the basis of conditional fee agreements, if appropriate.

Professional Negligence

Vondez also advises, drafts pleadings and represents clients on matters including allegations of professional negligence.
