Introduction

Jennifer joined 42 Bedford Row in 2017 on completion of pupillage in chambers and has a wide range of experience in civil and family law.

In 2015 Jennifer worked as an intern with the charity Amicus ALJ, assisting on death penalty trials and appeals in Louisiana. She remains involved in, and an enthusiastic supporter of, their work.

Housing

Jennifer represents, and advises, private and social landlords in possession and disrepair matters. She also has experience of conducting Environmental Protection Act prosecutions on behalf of local authority tenants.
