

Max Gordon

Call 2016

Telephone 020 7831 0222

Email clerks@42br.com

Introduction

Max has a broad common law practice and accepts instructions in a range of matters. Max has been described by a Justice of the Supreme Court as having 'a real talent for advocacy'.

Commercial and Insolvency

Max accepts instructions in personal and commercial insolvency matters and general contractual disputes. In addition, he represents debtors and creditors in winding-up petitions.

Property and Housing

Max represents both private and social landlords in possession, rent arrears, and disrepair claims. He also represents parties in private prosecution and defence of Environmental Protection Act prosecutions.

Max regularly advises on liability and quantum in a range of residential property matters including disrepair cases and section 21 notices.

Inquiries

Max has been instructed to assist the GLD with disclosure, including assisting on the Grenfell Inquiry.

Education

- Bar Professional Training Course (Outstanding, first in year), Nottingham Law School
- Graduate Diploma in Law (Commendation), Nottingham Law School
- BA in History (1st Class Honours), The University of Nottingham

Awards and Scholarships

- Nottingham Law School Taylor Prize for the best overall BPTC student
- Nottingham Law School Dean's Professional Course Scholarship
- Honourable Society of the Inner Temple Exhibition Award

Other Information

Prior to being called to the Bar, Max was a professional event rider and was selected for the Olympic Equine Pathway Squad. He continues to compete at an international standard as a hobby.