Introduction

Nigel's practice encompasses a wide range of commercial, chancery and property work before all levels of tribunal. He has appeared as sole advocate in the Court of Appeal on a number of occasions both bringing and responding to appeals.

Accreditations

"Nigel is approachable and excellent with clients. His ability to spot the "right point" and commercial outlook make him a go to counsel at all stages of litigation. His thorough preparation and flair for cross examination in particular make him a powerful trial advocate"
