

Sharan Bhachu

Call 1999

Telephone 020 7831 0222

Email clerks@42br.com

Introduction

Sharan was called to the Bar in 1999 and after completing pupillage developed a practice in all aspects of family law, with a particular emphasis on child protection work. She speaks fluent Punjabi.

Sharan is also involved in training and providing seminars to a wide ranging groups of professionals, including Local Authorities, Medical Professionals, the Police, Schools, Lawyers and many more.

Court of Protection

Sharan will represent clients ranging from Local Authorities to the Official Solicitor and Lay Clients/Family Members and has an ability to build a rapport with clients, no matter how delicate or difficult the situation and has developed a reputation for being straightforward and forthright. Sharan's experience in public law is extensive.

Public Law

Sharan is a Barrister specialising in Care Proceedings. She has particular experience in complex matters involving the forensic analysis of often disputed expert evidence. She has extensive experience of cases involving

- non accidental injuries(including where the injuries were caused by rare genetic mutations)/death of children,
- allegations of sexual abuse
- factitious illness
- serious domestic violence.
- Forced Marriage and matters involving Honour Based issues.
- Hague and Non Hague Convention Abductions

Description of work

Sharan will represent clients ranging from Local Authorities to Grandparents and has an ability to build a rapport with clients, no matter how delicate or difficult the situation.

She is regularly instructed on behalf of parents, local authorities and children's guardians and has developed a reputation for being straightforward and forthright. Sharan's experience in public law is extensive, ranging from emergency protection orders to secure accommodation orders and discharging care orders. Similarly, her experience in private law is also wide-ranging.

Accreditations

- "Is singled out for her ability to quickly develop a rapport with clients"

Related professional memberships

- Family Law Bar Association
- Mental Health Lawyers Association (to be confirmed)

Education

- LLB (Hons)
- BVC