Rebecca commenced pupillage with 42BR in September 2026 under the supervision of Jo Porter.

Before commencing pupillage, Rebecca worked as a County Court Advocate for LPC Law, undertaking over 240 hearings across a range of civil matters, including Small Claims hearings. Prior to this, she was a paralegal at Monaco Solicitors, working within the Medical Negligence team in Sydney, Australia. She also worked as a paralegal in the Public Children Team at Ian Walker Family Law, working on care proceedings and representing the interests of vulnerable clients.

Alongside her studies, Rebecca volunteered at the Family Advice Bristol (FAB) Clinic, helping individuals to access free legal advice on private family matters. She was the winner of the 4PB Financial Remedies Essay Competition in 2024, with her essay on spousal maintenance subsequently published in the Family Law Journal.

Outside of chambers, Rebecca enjoys travelling and fitness, particularly CrossFit.
