Introduction

Mukhtiar is a highly regarded commercial/chancery practitioner with very wide experience. His practice encompasses specialist advisory work and representation in the following interrelated areas of law:

- Commercial/business
- Contract
- Corporate insolvency/bankruptcy
- Land/property
- Wills/probate

Clients repeatedly go to Mukhtiar for the clear and practical advice he gives, together with his outstanding advocacy and substantial litigation experience in court. He is greatly valued for his ability to get straight to the core of a problem and meticulous attention to detail. Mukhtiar is steadfastly dependable and frequently recommended by solicitors to both their colleagues and others.

“Throws himself into a case and quickly cuts to the heart of complex legal problems...an excellent advocate”

Wills/probate

Mukhtiar undertakes instructions in both contentious and non-contentious wills and probate matters.

Examples of work:

- Representing client in a claim in which a copy will was challenged on grounds of forgery and successfully striking out the claim.
- Advising clients on the meaning and effect of clauses in wills.
- Advising solicitor on substantial gift left to him by former client, where family of deceased sought to challenge gift.
